ACT Fire & Rescue (ACTF&R) Internal Awards presented

Number 2018 - 001

Status Immediate release

Date Wednesday 11 April 2018

Last night ACT Fire & Rescue recognised 45 members for their dedication to protecting the Canberra community.

“I was very proud to attend these awards to honour ACT Fire & Rescue members who provide crucial and often life-saving services to the ACT community,” ESA Commissioner Dominic Lane said.

“I acknowledge and thank the families, partners and loved ones of the medal recipients for their continued support and the sacrifices they have made in allowing the award nominees to serve our community,” he said.

One member, Mr Jeff Southwell, received his medal clasp for 40 years of service, and Commander Jason Jones received a Chief Officer’s Meritorious Service Medal.

As well as these outstanding contributions members were recognised for their length of service and good conduct to ACTF&R.

- 19 members received a 30-year long service and good conduct clasp
- 21 members received a 20-year long service and good conduct clasp
- Three members received a 10-year long service and good conduct clasp.

The awards were presented during a special ceremony at the ACT Fire Museum in Forrest.
